Information on the application for an LFBIS holding number

An agricultural and/or forestry entity within the meaning of the LFR is defined by agricultural and/or forestry activity or the provision of services for the agriculture and/or forestry.

In terms of management, it is necessary that the land is farmed by the managers, meaning at their own risk and expense. To just own land without self-contained management (e.g. through lease of land) is not a proper base to apply for an LFBIS holding number.

For the application for an LFBIS holding number please send us an e-mail (lfr@statistik.gv.at) with the filled form and the therein mentioned documents.
